INSPIRATION THROUGH “THE THREE VARIABLES” OF MANKIND!

Enjoy the benefit all one's life

Peoples of different religions impressed with new multi-cultural approach in using natural science to improve their lives.

What do a newborn, a troubled teenager and a professional have in common? All are born with magnetic fields. For generations, men have been studying the laws of nature and Feng shui – but for the first time to meet the demand of the New Era; this lesson will explain the intricate connection of the three variables and life itself through the study of Colour/Direction and Time.

Proving to be the key to enable you to command nature’s mystery, the book ‘THREE VARIABLES’ by Grand Master Jason Tan, will teach individuals how to enhance their own magnetic field effects through a unique combination of Colour, Direction and Time.

The author, Grand Master Jason Tan, is a Singaporean who has spent decades researching on natural science methodology and has also interpreted the Yi Jing theory. He has also assisted Singaporeans of different races (Chinese, Malay, Indian, Eurasian and Sikh) to adjust their personal magnetic fields to improve their life paths.
